Dialysis

Adequate Dialysis means:

- Getting to dialysis on time
- Staying for your full treatment
- Maintaining fluid balance
- Following your renal diet
- Taking your medications

Symptoms of Inadequate Dialysis:

- tiredness,
- weakness
- nausea
- poor appetite
- losing body weight

Every LAST Minute Counts

For more information on adequacy of dialysis check with your health care team.